

DETECTIVE JENNINGS.

HIS DEALINGS WITH THE CROOKS, BUSH AND CLARK.

Why He Pawned the Stolen Jewelry for Them—He Wanted to Work Them for the Recovery of the Governor's Watch—The Detectives Exonerated by the Court.

An unusual case occupied nearly all day in Department No. 1 of the Superior Court yesterday. Judges Cheney and McKinley sat in banc as committing magistrates, for the purpose of investigating the charges made against Detective Charles Jennings by George Bush and James Clark, the two young crooks who pleaded guilty to burglary a few days ago. The startling story told by the young criminals implicated also Detective Emil Harris, and indicated that the city is being worked by a gang of burglars with the assistance and participation of officers. A complaint having been filed against Mr. Jennings, the Judges consented to sit as committing magistrates before passing sentence upon Bush and Clark. Their sentence had been continued until yesterday morning, and by consent was continued again until next Saturday.

The defendant was represented by El Toro Williams and Henry W. Edelman and the State by Mr. Hardesty. Both sides went fully into the case, and a number of witnesses were examined.

The first witness was MRS. MARY A. KIMBALL, residing at 816 South Pearl street, who testified that her house was burglarized on the evening of the 24th of February, between 8 and 11 o'clock. Among other things she missed a gold chain valued at $18. (The chain was identified by the witness.)

L. B. COHEN, pawnbroker, sworn: I know Detective Jennings. I received a chain in pawn from him February 27th, as a pledge. I loaned him $2 on the chain. I gave him a pawn-ticket. I loaned Mr. Jennings my carat and acids for testing gold about that time.

G. W. BUSH: I know Detective Jennings and have for two years and a half. I know where Mrs. Kimball lives; on Pearl street. I first saw that chain after it came out of the house. Clark and myself got it. It was stolen by us. I showed the chain to Jennings afterward. After the burglary I saw him the next evening, and told him that was about all that was got, except a large glass stud. I told him Clark had the chain. Clark stepped up and said he had the chain. Jennings asked if it was a good gold chain. He said that he would go into Cohen's, get the tester, and we would go to our room and test it. He knew we had stolen it. He tested it and found that it was about twelve or fourteen carats, and said he could get $10 for it. Our room was No. 418 East Main street. Mr. Clark told him to take the chain down and sell it. He came back soon and said Cohen would only give $2.50 for it. He pawned a gold watch, a ring and some oxidized silver for me. This silver watch he took in and said that Cohen wouldn't buy it. This gold ring, after setting, he pawned for me. The pawn tickets were all in Jennings' name. I received $3.50 from Jennings on the gold watch, $2.50 on the opal ring. This silver watch he took in; there were earrings with this. [Identified them.] I got the watch and earrings on Pearl street, at Duque's. I did not know myself where it was. I told Jennings it was a job we had done. I had been arrested before this. I told Jennings I had left some of the stuff at a restaurant. It was after this that Jennings pawned the stuff.

Cross-examination: I was arrested for the offense, to which I have pleaded guilty two or three weeks ago. The burglary was after dark. I had no talk with anybody about my cases before I pleaded. I don't know how many cases there are against me. I am not the arresting officer. Mr. Jennings informed the officers, I think, about the other cases. He told them he had been working me. I have been in the City Prison since pleading guilty. The officers took me there. I preferred to go there. I told them so. Mr. Auble and Mr. Bowler went with me from the courtroom. I was probably two or three weeks in the City Prison before coming up to plead. I sent for Mr. Hardesty, and told him that I wanted to make a statement; that I wanted to tell the truth about this matter. I wanted to get up to court and tell what I knew; that these men had been using me as a "monkey," and when I got in jail they went back on me. I have had several talks with Jennings about Waterman's watch. He asked me to try and get it; that he could get $250 for it. It was after he pawned the articles I had stolen. I know it was after, because it was shortly after the dark-lantern matter. The first time I became acquainted with Mr. Jennings was about two and a half years ago, when some stuff was transferred by Mr. Levy to Mr. Jennings. It was $640 worth cutlery. I and another young man robbed Hoffman's hardware store, and the arrangement was with Emil Harris; Bill Levy and Mr. Jennings to turn up the stuff for the reward. It was done, and I got $50 of the $64 reward. I got a bracelet and stud, diamonds, from the Duque's house. I sold them to Emil Harris. I got $12.50 for the bracelet and $5 for the stud. It was one afternoon, shortly after lunch. It was at his office. It was about four days after the robbery. I told him I had robbed a house. The bracelet and stud had been left by me in a restaurant. The officers came in to arrest me, and I left the things in the chair. The proprietor got them. After I got out of jail I got them again. I gave a waiter $10 for them. I told him who I sold them to. I was arrested on suspicion. It was at Campi's restaurant, on Commercial street. The waiter wrote me a note afterward, stating that he had found the jewelry, and asking me to meet him in a saloon. I met him and agreed to give up $10 to recover them. He did so, and I gave him $5, agreeing to give him the other $5 later. I met him again, told him what I had got for them, to whom I had sold them; that I had used some of the money, and could not pay him the rest then. He said all right.

The Court asked the witness about the relations between himself and the defendant during the two years since the first robbery. Bush said that he had only done that "trick," and the others recently with them; but during that time had been about fourteen months in jail.

Being asked further about his written statement, Bush said: Mr. Wallin was present when I wrote out the statement. He wrote it from my dictation, and I read it after it was written. It was the Hoffman hardware store that was robbed. I was one of those who did the job. I got a portion of the $50. I got half of it. The young man who was with me got the other $25. I don't know where he is. I do not know what I was arrested for after the Duque house was robbed. No charge was booked against me.

Mr. Williams: Were you ever employed to "shade" Chief Glass? Bush: While I was stopping at Harris' house he told me Chief Burns suspected Glass of crooked work, and wanted me to shadow Mr. Glass. I did so, with another young man; Connolly was his name. When I was in prison I told Chief Glass about it. I told him about a week ago. I think it was in the paper, and he asked me about it. Harris told me Jennings had a man "shading" Glass also, and wanted to see if my report corresponded with his.

Redirect: I lived at Harris' house probably three or four months. That was after the Hoffman robbery. Jennings knew that I was going to do a job the night we robbed Kimball's house. He did not know what house. He tried to get a dark lantern for us. He made no attempt to arrest me. Harris asked me to come to his house. He told me I could come up there and stop. I don't think my report about Glass corresponded with the other man's. His report was that he went to Lawson's office in the Lanfranco block; mine was that we went to the District Attorney's office in the same building. Jennings gave me a pawn-ticket on the watch and ring as a matter of form.

L. B. COHEN, sworn: Mr. Jennings brought me the ring and pawned it February 18th for $2.50 for G. W. Bush. He also pawned me the watch, February 18th or 19th, for $4; also the lady's neck chain for $2.

George E. Fullerton, druggist at No. 425 North Main street, testified that in February, about three or four weeks ago, Jennings came to his store and asked him if he had a dark lantern. That was all the conversation.

C. E. Wallin, a police officer, testified that he wrote the statement for Bush at his dictation. No one offered him any inducement to make it.

The prosecution then rested.

CONSTABLE FRED SMITH was the first witness for the defense, and testified that he had a conversation with Jennings about some articles pawned with Cohen about three weeks ago. It was before the arrest of Jennings the first time. He thought it was a day or two before his arrest.

Mr. Hardesty objected to the testimony on the ground that it was subsequent to the time the property was discovered in pawn by the officers, when the District Attorney's office was in full possession of the facts, and only two days before the defendant's arrest, when a complaint was already out for his arrest; but the question was allowed.

The witness said Jennings told him that if there was a watch, ring and chain missing they were in Cohen's pawn shop. He could get them if any inquiries came into the office. He said he was working on the Waterman watch case, and thought the parties from whom he got the stuff had the Waterman watch. He asked the witness if he thought he was doing right in pawning the stuff, and the witness told him that he thought so, and would go still further if necessary.

Mr. Hardesty here called MRS. DUQUE for the prosecution, not having done so in the regular order, and she identified her part of the stolen jewelry. She further testified that in the burglary of her house, February 1st, at No. 631 South Hope street, the burglars got several valuable diamonds, among them a breastpin valued at $100, earrings valued at $150, a bracelet valued at $250, and a stud valued at $80. The thieves also got about forty dollars in money.

BUSH CROSS-QUESTIONED. As soon as the witness left the stand Judge Cheney recalled Bush and asked him searching questions relative to discrepancies in his stories. In his first statement he had said Jennings and Harris kept him so poor by giving him only a trifle for the stolen goods, that he didn't have enough to get out of town with. But Mrs. Duque's testimony showed that they had stolen valuable diamonds and secured money as well. The witness' replies were somewhat vague and unsatisfactory to the queries of the Court.

J. F. ANDERSON, Deputy Sheriff, testified that he had a conversation with the defendant on Washington's birthday in front of the City of Paris store. Jennings told him he was working a young man; had got a watch of him. He was trying to get a watch that had been stolen from Gov. Waterman. The witness said the conversation about the watch was on February 22d.

I. COHEN, a cigar dealer, testified that he was in Cohen's pawnshop in the evening, between 6 and 7 o'clock, when Jennings came in with a chain—a neck-chain. He said he wanted to pawn it, and to have it put in with the other chains; that he would "get a big thing out of that fellow."

EX-CHIEF OF POLICE BURNS testified that Emil Harris was Captain of Police during his regime. The witness stated that he does not know Bush. He received reports from a man he supposed was Bush, in regard to Mr. Glass, now Chief of Police.

The testimony on this line was stricken out. The witness then testified that Jennings' reputation is good. He had conversations with Jennings between February 7th and 28th, about the pawning of the property, in which Jennings asked him if he was doing right. Between the 22d and 27th Jennings told him about the chain and about his making an excuse to test it to get into the room of Bush and Clark; that he knew the building where they roomed but not the room. He thought Bush had Gov. Waterman's watch. The talk was to get the watch, but not to go far enough to criminate himself.

OFFICER AUBLE was called by the defense and testified that Bush's reputation is bad; that he would not believe him under oath unless he was corroborated, but that he had witnesses in the room to corroborate the statements of Bush, if they were put on the stand.

OFFICER BOWLER testified in the same manner, with the additional statement that Bush was known as a thief when he lived at Emil Harris' house.

OFFICER AUBLE was recalled and testified that Bush was a petty larceny thief during the time that he was at Harris' house; that he prosecuted Bush for the burglary of Hoffman's store. On that trial Emil Harris was a witness. Bush was locked in the witness-room with the witness at the time, and said he was a witness for Bush. He was called out by the Deputy Sheriff, and the witness supposed he testified.

DETECTIVE JENNINGS sworn: I am in the employ of Harris & Metzler, and am a Deputy Constable under Fred Smith. I am a man of family. The first transaction I had with Bush was about six weeks ago. He met me on the street and asked me if there was any reward for Gov. Waterman's watch. I told him I would find out and let him know. I afterward told him there was. He said he knew who had done the job and could get it. The first thing I ever pawned was a ring. I think I think he took out the ring and watch together. He said he got them from a girl. He was very particular to get the ticket. I gave him the money. He was all the time telling me he could get the Waterman watch, and I believed him. I still think he knows where it is. He afterward showed me a little box of jewelry, and wanted me to pawn it. I asked him if it was straight goods. He said yes. I went in Cohen's store, and went back to the rear to examine the jewelry. Cohen never saw it. I had a list of stolen property, and I wanted to see if before he got it back. So I went out and told him Cohen wanted to examine two earrings; they might be valuable. I did not find the description on my list, and returned the jewelry to Bush. A few days later Clark gave me the chain to pawn. I pawned it and gave Bush the money, $2.50. Cohen saw me do it. A few days later Bush asked me to get a dark lantern. I went to Cohen's and he had none. They asked me to go to Fullerton's and see if he had one. I went, but it was not necessary. If I had wanted a lantern I could have got one in the office. After that Bush told me they were after the watch I had pawned. I went to Cohen's when the officers were getting the jewelry. I showed them the articles I had pawned; but I think I forgot about the ring. That is all I know about it. My purpose was to get into the confidence of the two young crooks. I kept nothing back. The first thing I did I reported to the office. I still think Bush and Clark know about the Waterman watch. I told more than I otherwise would to other people because I knew I was on dangerous ground, and liable to get in trouble. I knew the men were bad men. What I did I did honestly. I did not know the property was stolen, but had my suspicions.

MR. FOSTER, in Harris & Metzler's agency, testified that the defendant reported what he was doing at the office. He heard him tell about pawning the articles.

EMIL HARRIS sworn: I know Bush. I have known him 18 months, but first as Thomas McDonald. It was very nearly two years ago that I first met him. Word was sent me that a prisoner wanted to see me at the County Jail. I went and saw the man. It was Bush or McDonald. He was accused of burglary. He said they had tortured him in jail, unless he would implicate me in the burglary. At that time I was an applicant for chief of the detective force. I afterward testified as a witness in his case. I think I was called for the prosecution, but I knew nothing about it. He was acquitted. Afterward Bush came to me and asked me to help him. I told him he could come up to my house and I would give him something to eat and a change of clothes. He came and stayed a few days, and I gave him a change of clothes. He wanted a shadow for some of his officers, and I got Bush to do it. I never knew of any crime he committed while at my house. I never received any stolen property from him. I never bought any diamonds from him, or talked with him about robbing any places. I never knew of his robbing any house.

This concluded the testimony and Mr. Hardesty made a short argument, claiming that the defendant had not made a satisfactory showing. Both Judge McKinley and Judge Cheney concurred that the evidence made no case against the defendant and discharged him from custody.

THE CASTAC MURDER.

Chormicle and Gardner Under Examination.

The examination of Chormicle and Gardner, the Castac Canyon murderers, was continued before Justice Austin yesterday, when the defense commenced the introduction of testimony. Among the witnesses examined for the prosecution were Dr. Granville MacGowan, who made the post mortem on the bodies of the murdered men; Mack Pyle, who picked up some cartridges in front of the cabin after Chormicle and Gardner had left, and Mrs. D. Cook, the wife of one of the men who was shot. Nothing new was brought out in their examination.

The first witness for the defense was Sheriff Reilly of Ventura county, to whom Chormicle and Gardner surrendered themselves. He detailed at some length the circumstances connected with the giving up of the men, and also that he had known Chormicle for a number of years, and that his reputation for peace and quiet was good.

R. Ross was examined at some length for the defense as to Chormicle's right to the land on which Cook and Walton were attempting to settle, from which it would appear that the defense will be that they were killed by Chormicle and Gardner in self-defense while protecting their property.

The examination will be continued before Justice Austin Monday.

NOT ISOLATED CASES.

To show that the cures made by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla are not only not exceptional cases, but that it helps everybody, we cite a few instances where two in the same family took it and were both cured.

Thomas Stephens, of 168 Sixth St., S. F., took it for weak stomach and dyspepsia. It entirely cured him. He then gave it to his wife for her sick headaches, since which time she has had no return. It cured them both.

Mrs. R. L. Wheaton, of 704 Post St., S. F., was a sufferer from stomach and liver troubles and biliousness. Finding that her husband was very feeble and greatly reduced, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla restored her health and accustomed vigor. He thereupon gave it to his wife who was similarly afflicted and by my lady agent, Mrs. A. T. YAPLE, Ramona Hotel, Los Angeles. F. W. BRAUN & CO., Los Angeles, wholesale agents for Southern California.

H. S. Winn, of Geary Court, Geary St., S. F., prominent in the Order of Red Men, was very feeble and greatly reduced. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla restored her health and accustomed vigor. He thereupon gave it to his wife who was similarly afflicted and by my lady agent, Mrs. A. T. YAPLE, Ramona Hotel, Los Angeles. F. W. BRAUN & CO., Los Angeles, wholesale agents for Southern California.

It had the same happy effect upon her. It had upon him. Scores of similar cases could be cited but we have no room for them here.

The Los Angeles Appropriation Reported.

The House Committee Fixes the Total Amount at $450,000.

Ex-Speaker Carlisle Very Bitter Over Lodge's Federal Election Bill.

The Kentucky Statesman Thinks It Will Spoil Democratic Majorities in the South—Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds today reported favorably the bill for the erection of a public building at Los Angeles, Cal., fixing the limit of cost at $450,000.

CARLISLE ALARMED.

The Democratic Leader Objects to Lodge's Election Law.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The San-Gazette of this city will tomorrow publish an interview with ex-Speaker Carlisle upon the attitude of the Democratic Representatives toward the several important measures pending before the House. In the interview Carlisle first attacked Lodge's bill providing for Federal regulation of elections for Representatives. He said: "The Democrats in the House are a unit in opposition to the first clause, which in practice would make the bill operate only in certain sections of the country. If we are to have such a law it should operate everywhere alike, and not be left, as Mr. Lodge's bill leaves it, to operate here and there as may be requested by a given number of voters in this or that Congressional district. The intention is, in other words, to control the machinery of elections for Representatives in Congress from the southern Congressional districts and from the northern districts. This we shall oppose."

Continuing Carlisle estimated that to carry out the provisions of the bill would require the employment of 30,000 officers of election at an expense of from ten to fifteen million dollars every two years, which would have to be met by the United States treasury. If the Australian system were adopted as proposed it would necessitate a vast increase in the number of polls. Then, too, he argued, the bill is so complex that its requirements could never be made clear to illiterate voters or to ignorant Republican election officers in the South, and a legal election would be impracticable.

Said he: "The bill would be a prolific source of innumerable contests, and, with great emphasis, that is just what they want. They could take advantage of every irregularity that might and will arise under this multifarious law."

He contended that the bill did not come within the meaning of the clause of the Constitution conferring upon Congress the right to prescribe the manner of elections. It deprived governors of their right to issue certificates of election and, in fact, took away from the State all control of elections. Mr. Carlisle further said the McCulloch bill, providing that elections for Representatives be held in districts as they were constituted at the last election, was open to the same objection.

In conclusion Mr. Carlisle said while the extravagant expenditures of the party in power and their proposed partisan laws were important questions, they would not be the overtopping issues of the fall campaign, but that the tariff question would continue to be of relief to the people from unnecessary taxation by tariff laws.

Canvassers Preparing for the Spring Session.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] A number of canvassers-goods dealers made arguments before the Ways and Means Committee today in opposition to the proposition in the Tariff Bill to increase by two-thirds of 1 cent a pound the duty on tin.

Representatives of several packing firms contended that half the price they received for their goods was made up of the cost of the cans, and the present tax amounts to 10 per cent on the tomatoes and corn packed. The canvassers of this country consumed about twelve million cans of tin plate per annum, and the tax upon it was paid almost entirely by poor people.

Representative Bayne said that in the course of a year and a half the mills of this country would be producing all the tin plate needed for domestic consumption, and at a price that would compare favorably with the present price paid for imported tin plate. Thirty thousand tons would also be given employment, and the country would save $20,000,000 now sent away to pay for English tin.

This statement was received with incredulity by the packers, who said, however, if they could be assured that this result would follow they would have nothing more to say.

The Beet-sugar Industry.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Senator Pad-dock from the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry today reported a substitute for two bills referred to the committee for the encouragement of the cultivation of the sugar-beet and manufacture of sugar therefrom, with a request that it be referred to the Committee on Finance. The bill proposes a bounty of $1 for every ton of beets raised in the United States delivered to a factory and made into merchantable sugar, and a bounty of $1 for every hundred pounds of sugar manufactured from beets raised in the United States, the bounty to be paid only during the fiscal years of 1891-92 and 1892-93. It also proposes to exempt from duty during the same period all machinery imported for the manufacture of beet sugar.

Bounties for Veterans.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Senator Ingalls, by request, introduced a bill today to give to every soldier or sailor who served ninety days or longer in the late war a bounty of $50 a year for every year of service or part of a year. If the soldier is dead the money shall go to the widow named in the will, or to the minor children, father or mother. In case the soldier or sailor was discharged for disability, he is to be paid the bounty for the full enlistment. Any soldier who served as a substitute for pay is excluded from the benefits of the bill.

To Investigate Liquor Traffic.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The House committee on the alcoholic liquor traffic has authorized a favorable report on the bill for the appointment of a commission on that traffic, to be appointed by the President, to make a complete investigation into the traffic in alcoholic, fermented and malt liquor, its phases, its relation to revenue and taxation, its effect on labor, manufacturing, agriculture, pauperism, crime, social vice, public health, etc., and to report to Congress within two years.

A Beer Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Representative Turner of Kansas today introduced a bill defining larger beets and imposing a special tax upon and regulating the manufacture, sale and importation of adulterated larger beets.

Gen. Schenck Dying.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Gen. Robert C. Schenck, ex-United States Minister to England, is lying very low of pneumonia. Gen. Schenck is 80 years old and it is feared he will not recover.

The President's Bag of Ducks.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The President returned to Washington this evening from his shooting expedition, bringing sixty fine ducks.

STREAMS RISING.

Disastrous Floods Threatened in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURGH, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] From all indications, a flood of serious proportions threatens this section. A warm rain set in last night, and has continued ever since. The mountains were covered with snow, and this melting has swollen all the small streams until they are out of their banks. Dispatches from all points along the Allegheny, Youghiogheny and Monongahela rivers report the water rising rapidly. At the headwaters of the Monongahela the water is higher than ever known, and is still creeping up. Farm lands along the streams are already under water, and great alarm is felt.

Reports from points in the mountains of West Virginia show that all streams are bank full and rising, with rain falling everywhere. Dispatches say that indications for disastrous floods tonight and tomorrow were never better, and there is a good deal of apprehension. In Pittsburgh a rise of three to five feet more will inundate the lower portion of the South Side and Allegheny City and cause a suspension of work in the mills along the river. People in the lower districts are preparing to vacate their homes. So far no serious damage is reported.

JOHNSTOWN (Pa.), March 22.—The water has remained stationary since daylight, but the volume is likely to be increased on account of the steady fall of rain during the forenoon. Several large logs that lodged against the Franklin bridge threatened its destruction, but a force of men removed them, and unless a rapid rise should occur little further damage is anticipated at present.

THE MISSISSIPPI'S OVERFLOW.

NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—The river here is receding slowly and the levees continue to hold, but the Nita crevasse is now 450 feet wide, and appears beyond control. The water from the Offutt break has spread over a large territory. All stock in the overflowed district and for quite a distance adjacent has been removed to places of safety, and the people are now comfortably situated at different places, and have been provided for by those interested in their welfare.

THE OHIO RISING.

CINCINNATI, March 22.—At midnight the Ohio River registered fifty feet and five inches, having risen three inches in the last hour. It seems to be keeping up that rapid rate. River men apprehend floods tonight, since the reports of the condition of the tributaries on the west slope of the Alleghenies were learned.

AMONG THE BRUISERS.

MAULIFFE'S OPINION OF HIS LATE OPPONENT.

Carroll a Hard Fighter, but Not Good in His Methods—The Victorious Pugilist Congratulated by Gotham's Mayor.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Jack McAuliffe, who defeated Jimmy Carroll at the California Athletic Club in one of the cleverest battles ever seen in the prize ring, was up and on the street before 10 o'clock this morning, looking a little the worse for last night's fight. Both hands and wrists are badly swollen, and his right hand troubles him considerably. He stated that while he found Carroll to be a hard man in the early part of the fight, he was fully confident of being able to beat him.

Carroll was as slow as people believe him to be, said McAuliffe. "If any one knows that I am not down to weight, I would advise him to come to weight. I was my greatest mistake. I sized Carroll very soon and adopted a line of ring tactics that I knew would keep me in the ring. I told my seconds during the fight to assure my backers that I was there to stay, and if I found that I could not knock him out I proposed to keep out of his way all night if necessary. With the exception of my arms I am feeling first rate."

Carroll's face this morning presented a bad appearance. A welt over his eye and swollen features told too well how McAuliffe's blows had landed on him. The defeated man offers as his excuse for not whipping McAuliffe that he was too confident of success and permitted himself to be whipped. He takes his defeat rather hard but says he is not through fighting yet.

McAuliffe and his backers devoted over an hour this morning to receiving and answering congratulatory dispatches from all over the country. Among the dispatches received was one from Mayor Grant of New York, who is an admirer of McAuliffe.

Shot His Business Rival.

NEW YORK, March 22.—A probably fatal shooting affray took place in front of the Fourteenth-street Theater tonight just before the hour for the performance. James S. Hyde quarreled with William Turnbull, a rival ticket speculator, and shot him in the abdomen. The affair created great excitement.

There was an old feud between the men. Hyde, who bears a good reputation, was visited tonight by J. M. Hill and Steele Mackay, and he told them he shot in self-defense after being knocked down and having his eyes nearly gouged out. Turnbull threatened to cut his heart out and he fired. Turnbull died half an hour after the shooting.

The McCulla Trial.

NEW YORK, March 22.—In the McCulla inquiry this morning Lieut. Ingersoll said that with the exception of one officer, who was tried by court-martial and discharged, there was no officer now in the Enterprise who he knew to have been in the guard of the fluors. The officers were in accord with the commander. He thought the punishments inflicted were necessary.

Lieut. Lemley testified that the Enterprise was not a happy ship. The captain was loyal to the commander, but witness could not say they approved his methods. Lieut. Mulligan complimented McCulla upon his management.

An Embellisher Sentenced.

CINCINNATI, March 22.—Judge Bates today sentenced to the penitentiary for two and a half years William H. Meyers, the well-known merchant, for the embezzlement of $100,000 by him as guardian of minor children. The defense was lack of intent. The money had been invested in business and disaster followed. The Court in sentencing the prisoner said the security of trust funds must be protected by an emphatic condemnation of gross and outrageous misuse.

Victims of a Railway Wreck.

PORTAGE (N.Y.), March 22.—By a collision tonight between passenger and freight trains on the Western New York and Pennsylvania Railroad Engineers Warner and Stout were badly scalded, and Brakenbury Riley and Olsen and a fireman named Hughes were killed. An unknown man from Rochester had both legs ground off and a passenger received fatal injuries. Conductor Godfrey was badly hurt.

A Needed Land Court.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Gen. A. D. Williamson, formerly Commissioner of the General Land Office, was before the House Committee on Private Land Claims today and made an argument, in which he urged the committee to recommend the establishment of a tribunal in New Mexico and Arizona to adjudicate contested land claims.

The Belloc Failure.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—The report of the experts was received today by the committee representing the creditors of Belloc & Co., the private banking firm which failed recently. The report placed the liabilities at $485,000 and the assets at $181,000.

A MANIA'S FURY.

Trying to Set Fire to a Steamer While at Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Among the passengers of the steamer Acapulco, which arrived yesterday from Panama and Central American ports, were M. P. Kohlberg and his wife and son. Kohlberg was confined in a straight-jacket, a raving maniac. He is a partner in a wholesale tobacco-house in the city, and is well known among down-town merchants. He left here with his wife and son on the steamer Colima, the last vessel which left here for Panama. He was not in the best of health, and a sea voyage was recommended.

He started for New York by way of the isthmus. When the steamer was four days out Kohlberg showed symptoms of an unsettled mind, and on the following day locked himself up in his stateroom and set fire to the curtains. Smoke was discovered issuing from beneath the door, and immediately the whole steamer was in commotion. The door was forced open, and the room was found filled with smoke and flames. The unfortunate man was dragged out and the fire extinguished. He was put in a straight-jacket and landed at Mazatlan, and returned here on the steamer yesterday.

SISTER ROSE.

Not Allowed to Become an Exile Among the Lepers.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Dr. J. M. Whitney of Honolulu, who arrived here on the steamer Australia yesterday, states that Sister Rose Gertrude, the English girl who was anxious to nurse lepers at Molokai, will not become an exile in the leper settlement, and perhaps die there as she anticipated. The settlement of Molokai is in charge of the Sisters of the Sacred Heart, who are maintained there by the Hawaiian government, and as Sister Rose Gertrude belongs to another order, the Dominican Sisters, she could not be admitted.

She is therefore at Kalili, the receiving station for lepers as they are sent from the mainland. Dr. Whitney states that she is very comfortable at Kalili, and not isolated, though she is disappointed in her expectations.

A TUG IN TROUBLE.

Labeled for Violating Canadian Customs Regulations.

VICTORIA (B. C.), March 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The American tug Mogul has been labeled for alleged infraction of the Canadian customs laws, and a bond of $500 has been deposited as payment of the fine liable to be levied should she enter these waters. The question is to be referred to the customs authorities at Ottawa for decision. The trouble arose over the towage of the ship Danial. Carries from Victoria to Nanaimo. The Mogul made arrangements to do the towage, and to give the transaction a semblance of legality, a small local tug, the Lottie, was engaged to tow the Carries out to what the master of the Mogul assumed to be the three-mile limit, which the customs inspector denies it to be. Here the tow line was taken by the Mogul and the vessel was towed to Nanaimo, the Mogul entering that port with clearance papers from Port Townsend.

Banker Hellman in Charge.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—A local paper says Isaias Hellman of Los Angeles, the new president of the Nevada Bank, has assumed charge of the affairs of the bank. He states that no changes will be made in the bank staff at present, as things are running very smoothly. There has been a good demand for stock and he has found it difficult to fill the orders.

FURTHER HOME INDORSEMENTS OF COL. MARKHAM.

Solid Sentiments of Many Pasaden-
ians—They Want Him for Governor, Because They Know Him
and Believe in Him.

Representatives of THE TIMES yesterday interviewed more than one hundred of the citizens of Pasadena, of all classes and parties, on the subject of the Governorship. Below are the responses elicited. They are, almost without exception, highly favorable to Pasadena's foremost citizen and the Republican favorite:

R. Williams: "I am decidedly in favor of Markham as the most available man for election."

C. H. Rhodes: "I thought every one knew how I stood. First, last and all the time for Markham for Governor."

Horace E. White: "I am going to vote
for Markham for Governor of California."

T. P. Lukens: "Markham will be the next Governor. He is the best timber
for Governor in the State."

Col. O. S. Picher, leading Republican: "I will say Markham is just made to order for Governor of this State."

H. L. Moody, law student: "I would rather see him elected than any man
in the State."

Mr. Corson: "I was laboring under certain apprehensions the other day;
they have since been entirely obliterated; I am for Markham from start to finish; please so state."

W. B. Clapp, extensive horticulturist: "I think he is just the man; he would do us great honor."

E. G. Smith: "I would like to see Markham Governor; I am for him, of course."

Henry Newby, book-keeper: "We young Republicans would work hard to elect so good a candidate."

E. H. May, teller First National Bank: "I sincerely hope he will receive the nomination; I have no doubt of his election."

Oscar Freeman: "I am for Col.
Markham any way."

Rev. D. D. Hill: "Oh! that's all right; Mr. Markham would make the best Governor California ever had."

C. W. Buchanan: "O. K.; he is my man."

Prof. C. E. Tebbitts: "I am for Markham every time; so far as I know the field he is by all odds the best man."

Willie Thomson: "Markham would make a fine Governor; he holds a warm
place in the hearts of the people."

O. M. Allen, real estate: "You may write anything favorable to him you wish; I will endorse it."

Carl A. Anderson: "I'm a Democrat, and of course I don't want any more
of a good, clean man, and a strong man for the Republicans to nominate."

L. L. Bonner: "Pasadena wants Markham nominated."

T. W. Edwards: "Put me down as a Markham man."

J. A. McIntyre: "He suits me first-rate."

Jo Laspada, barber: "Oh, he's all right."

J. A. Traylor, capitalist: "He is an able man and would make a grand Governor."

I. U. Parker: "How does he strike me? Right in the neck; he's a dandy."

C. H. Frost: "He's all right; he's a gentleman."

L. Laspada: "Oh, splendid! You bet."

H. C. Rankin, M.D.: "From what I can hear Col. Markham would certainly disappoint a host of admirers if he failed of being a good Governor; I hear nothing but favorable comments
of him, either as citizen, neighbor or candidate."

P. Bohannan, plumber: "I can say that Col. Markham is my choice and I will work for him up to and including election day."

A. O. Bristol: "I am a Democrat, but Markham's record as a member of Congress and as a fellow school trustee has won my best opinion. I fear if nominated he would be elected.
I would rather see Waterman nominated."

Charles Grimes: "Markham is all right; he's good enough."

E. F. Marsh: "Markham is all right;
sure to win if nominated."

L. Jarvis, photographer: "Oh! you bet, he's all right; he's a winner."

A. J. Painter: "Oh! don't ask any foolish questions; certainly Markham
is the man."

Judge P. A. V. VanDoren: "I think the Colonel is the strongest man we can put up from this end of the State."

Isaac Springer: "He is my man for Governor."

S. W. Conway: "I think he is the most available man; can carry Southern California solid, and win more delegates in the north than any candidate that can come before the convention."

G. S. Mayhew: "I would like to see him Governor. He is my choice."

George Greely, liverman: "He's my man; we can elect him; I know he is the strongest man in this end of the State."

David Evey, Democrat: "If there was a good Democrat running I don't think I would vote for him; his reputation is good, and his party could not name a better man; I would rather see Waterman nominated."

W. A. Heiss: "He is the man we will always work for."

C. W. Hodson, principal Grant
school: "Of course, Markham."

E. A. Cochran, jeweler: "He will get my first vote."

W. H. Wiley: "I am for Markham; I would rather see him nominated than any man in the State."

Capt. L. B. Buckner: "He is just the brick I am looking for."

Capt. W. S. Larracott: "He is the very best man I know of for Governor of California."

J. B. White: "He is the man for me
every time."

Prof. L. W. Thayer: "I go in for him strong."

L. A. Addeman, capitalist: "He suits my fastidious tastes."

H. N. Farley: "I think a great deal of Col. H. H. Markham; I believe him by far the best man named for the Governorship."

Capt. John Cross, president Los Angeles, Pasadena and Glendale Railway:
"He is my choice for Governor, and I think he is the best man the old soldiers could support."

D. Webster, druggist: "Col. Markham is my choice, sir, for Governor. I do hope they will nominate him."

James Pearson: "Oh, I am for Markham. He is the pet in this county.
Everybody seems to want him nominated."

George Johnson: "Solid for Markham with my first vote."

L. T. McConnell: "I am a Markham
man, and I want him for Governor."

C. S. Martin: "I indorse him every time. He is by long odds the strongest man we can get."

William Noble: "He suits me first-
rate; would vote for him in preference to any other man in the State. I am very enthusiastic about Col. Markham."

John R. Reynolds, Jr.: "I think him
as good a man as the Republicans can select."

J. W. Nutting: "I think he is the best man we can nominate. He is the most popular man I know of."

C. H. Randall: "He is the best man in sight by a large majority. He would not be controlled by any interests adverse to the people."

George H. Frost: "Markham for Governor! Well, do you suppose I would go back on him? I guess not.
He will get my first vote."

M. E. Wood, City Treasurer: "Solid,
you bet your life, first, last and all the time, day evening and Sunday."

W. H. Bonner: "I am solid for Markham. Put that down."

J. O. Hoff: "I am a Markham man.
That's correct."

J. B. Slater, Constable and Deputy Sheriff: "Best man for the place I know of."

H. E. Pratt: "If it is to be a Republican, I would, if permitted, name
Markham."

G. A. Gibbs, attorney: "I think he is the ablest man that I know of. I like him very much as a man."

W. W. Mills, City Councilman: "I am all right on that point. So far as I know, he seems to be a favorite with everybody."

John Buchanan: "He is the boss man for the place. We want a man of brains."

J. G. Shoup, attorney: "I am in for Markham for Governor."

R. Strong, notary: "He suits me
first rate."

J. U. Marriener, real estate: "I would be glad to support Mr. Markham for Governor. I think, if nominated, we could elect him."

B. M. Kelso: "I am for Markham."

E. C. Neustadt, capitalist: "I am strongly in favor of Markham, and would do anything in my power to help him."

R. Amaler: "I am for Col. Markham, and always was for him."

S. F. Baughman: "I am at his right hand on that, now, I tell you. He will get one solid vote from me."

John Peaslee: "I think Markham is a tip-top man; we can get no better."

G. H. Ely: "I think he would make a good Governor, and, of course, I would vote for him. 'He is my choice.'"

A. K. Nash: "He is the best man in the State."

J. B. Wells: "Markham is my man;
he is capable, has good sense, and has had experience. I am for him every time."

William Schopbach: "From what I can learn of Mr. Markham, he is the right man for the place."

W. E. O'Brien: "I am solid for Markham. He is the best man in the party."

Samuel Stratton, old Pasadenaian:
"I should like to see Markham nominated. He is the best man for the place we have in the Southern part of
the State."

Dr. A. A. W. Bley, druggist: "Why,
Col. Markham is the man for Governor."

H. E. Hall, drug clerk: "My first vote will go to Col. H. H. Markham."

Dr. D. B. Van Slyck: "Markham
every time."

Judge C. N. Terry: "I am for Markham from the word."

A. L. Atkins: "I like the Colonel,
and everybody seems to me to be of the same opinion."

T. Lowe, assistant secretary Pacific
Lowe Gas Company: "I think he is a splendid man. If nominated he certainly will be elected."

George A. Richardson: "I would rather see Col. Markham elected than any other man in the State."

J. W. Sedgwick: "Markham is entirely satisfactory to me."

W. E. Peabody: "I would rather see
Col. Markham nominated than any other man, because we need the strongest man in the district, and he is certainly the man."

R. M. Caldwell: "I would be very glad to give Col. Markham my vote,
and I would be glad to see him Governor of the State."

W. B. Baker: "I think Col. Markham
is just the man—way up."

A. R. Huggins: "I am for Markham, out and out."

J. G. Brown: "I am both hands for Markham. If we have him we will have a good Governor."

M. M. Parker, principal Pasadena Academy: "I have known Col. Markham for a number of years. I have seen him in his family and among his neighbors. I would be pleased to do all in my power to elect Markham as the next Governor of California."

E. S. Frost: "I think Markham is the ablest man in the southern part of the State or in the northern portion,
either; he is therefore my choice."

L. E. Barnhart: "I am in favor of Markham."

C. Hartwell: "I want to vote for Markham. I regard him as the strongest man in the party."

R. H. Pinney: "I certainly prefer to have Mr. Markham nominated in preference to any man in the State."

Dr. Lyman Allen: "I am a Prohi-bitionist. I think Col. Markham is very much of a gentleman—brave, forward and honorable. He stands well with the people."

Dr. W. B. Rowland: "He is my choice. I think he is the top of the heap. I am for him first, last and all the time."

Dr. Macomber: "Oh, my, I am for Markham every time."

T. L. Hoag: "Markham is all right.
We are from the same town back east.
Went to school to his brother, and
like the whole family."

T. J. Martin: "I think he is the best man either the Republican or Democratic parties."

W. E. Arthur: "He is the favorite of Pasadena, Los Angeles county and the State of California, and will surely be nominated and elected."

Rev. J. G. Miller: "He is my choice.
I like him first rate."

Dr. A. E. Nichols: "Solid for Mark-
ham. He is one of God's noblemen."

J. T. Bangham: "Sound as a dollar for Markham."

P. O. Prince: "Why, he's all right—

suits me. I hope he will be nominated."

Frank Heiss: "I want to see him Governor. If nominated, he will be."

W. C. Mason: "I would vote for Col.
Markham. Hope he will be nominated."

Judge O. F. Weed: "From what I have seen and heard of Col. Markham
I should say he would be an excellent and available candidate."

George F. Kernaghan: "I think that if Col. Markham is elected we will have a man of ability and a gentleman we will all be proud of as Governor."

R. H. Marling: "Markham has no
peer in the Pacific States. He stands preeminent among California men; of course he is my choice."

LOS OTROS

Meeting of the Opponents of the Citizens' Ticket.

At the so-called Republican meeting
last night in Williams's Hall, ex-Senator Delos Arnold presided, and J. D.
Gilchrist was secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting by reading the call already published.

On motion of Mr. Wallace, the chair
appointed L. A. Sheldon, A. G. Throop, Col. O. S. Picher, L. P. Crawford, Dr.
Thomas, B. F. Ball, H. J. Holmes
and Mr. Knight as vice-presidents;
also as committee on platform and
resolutions: A. McLean, O. S. Picher, Dr. Thomas, B. F. Ball and Mr. Corson who withdrew from the hall to formulate the platform.

Mr. Sheldon was called for, introduced and spoke, protesting that he is a Republican.

Attorney Mulloy eulogized the City Council, and said Los Angeles is pursuing the same method Pasadena had,
and which the citizens' ticket so loudly
denounces. He closed with a motion that was ruled as out of order by the chair.

At this point the platform was read
by A. McLean. It indorses the City Council, demands the retention intact
of ordinance 125, declares party lines
banished, and denounces the citizens'
platform as published in terms forcible
and plain, hinting at the motive, and suggesting it as a dishonest one.

At this juncture a scene was narrowly avoided. H. J. Vail, with silk hat in hand, pushed his way toward the stage
and demanded that he be permitted to ask one question.

The chair: "Is the gentleman in sympathy with the objects of this meeting?"

Mr. Vail: "No, sir, I am not."

The chair: "Then the gentleman is out of order."

C. C. Brown, shouting at the top of his voice, demanded that as a Republican Mr. Vail should be heard.

Vail then asked the chairman to pass to point out a single error in the citizens' platform referred to by his committee as untrue.

However, the platform was adopted
as read.

Mr. D. D. Hill then made a telling speech.

"What inducements," said he, "can
we offer to men to come to Pasadena,
a city pure and clean and free from the kind's curse? No other place like it on the Pacific Coast. Let us not,
then, take the crown from Pasadena's
beautiful brow. If any of our friends want to drink whisky, why, to them I say, we have 20 trains a day, and I guess if there are not enough we can get another train if we explain to Capt. Cross the condition of our friends' stomachs. [Great applause.]

Rev. E. L. Conger, for some reason, would not take the stage, but spoke in
mild tones from the main floor.

A. R. Metcalfe, attorney, then made a very clear statement of the sewer matters, and suggested that Pasadena had a double sewer system, one of which was very effective in keeping
out the saloon sewage. [Loud applause.]

A few ladies were present, among them were Rachel Reed, M.D., Dr.
Ella Whipple and Mrs. Merritt of the Public Library. L. P. Crawford was called and made a characteristic speech.

Mr. Sheldon made a motion, which was carried, in effect turning the presented platform over to the straight Prohibitionists, who are to make a demonstration on the evening of the 29th.

The citizens' ticket advocates claim
that their cause was immeasurably advanced by the meeting supposed to be against them, as they claim the cat
went through the fence when Sheldon's motion carried, which provided for turning the organization over to the Prohibition meeting called for the 29th
inst.

A large crowd loitered to enjoy a running discussion on Colerado street between C. C. Brown and some Prohibitionists.

BREVITIES.

Messrs. Lancaster and Buchanan are making a set of 60 lockers for the new military company.

The regular company drill of the boys of the N.C.G. will take place
Monday evening, under command of Capt. Buckley.

A whist party was given at the residence of J. W. Wood, last evening, which was greatly enjoyed by a large
party of friends of that gentleman.

A special train will be run from Los Angeles over the Cross road next Thursday evening, to accommodate persons desiring to attend the Dunster organ concert, to be given at the Presbyterian Church on that evening.

It is to be regretted that so small an audience attended the matinee of Frederick Warde, in Virginia, yesterday afternoon. The ladies of this city will seldom, if ever, have another opportunity like this to witness acting of so high an order.

The public schools of Pasadena will be closed all of this week, to accord with the strain of labor incident to the two institutes just closed in Los Angeles. Los Angeles city teachers will please make a note of this fact.

The track laying on the new depot
extension of the Cross road was completed yesterday afternoon, so that the last train of the day for Los Angeles
started from the Arcadia block.
Owing to this fact several persons who had gone up to the Colerado-street crossing came near being left. The public should make a note of this fact,
and govern itself accordingly.

Another injunction suit against the city of Pasadena was issued out of Judge McKinley's court, in the matter of sewers now under construction to the sewer farm. Papers were served on the contractor, and the Council at its session yesterday requested these gentlemen to move from the present
work to another locality.

COUNCIL MEETING.

ELECTRIC LIGHT FRANCHISE
FOR 30 YEARS REQUESTED.

Public Library—Cow Ordinance—
Condition of Streets—Fire Alarm
System—City Tax Collector's Reports—Injunction Suits.

A regular meeting of the City Council
was held at the chambers last night,
with all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The City Attorney called the Council's attention to the fact that another injunction suit had been served on the contractors by Mr. Goff of Alhambra, against laying any more sewer-pipe in front of his property. It was therefore decided to discontinue work on that section, but to push the work
north of this property. It was further decided to take a similar course in every instance in case other suits of a similar character arose.

A communication was read from the Pasadena Electric Light and Power Company, asking for a 30-years' franchise from the city, in order to allow the company to float its bonds in the East, and the matter was laid over for future consideration.

The Marshal made a report in regard to electric lights, which was read,
and on motion referred to the Auditing
and Finance Committee.

The application of C. E. Curtis of Los Angeles for position as engineer of the fire department, accompanied with several recommendations, was read, and on motion was referred to the Committee on Fire and Water.

Mrs. Eunice D. Kitchner, through her attorney, served notice that the extension of Union avenue had not been authorized nor dedicated for public use in any manner whatever.

The amended petition of Charles M.
Phillips et al. was read and referred to Committee on Streets and Alleys. The committee reported immediately, recommending the closing up of certain streets in Raymond addition, with the provision that such petitioners deposit a sum necessary to defray expenses of properly advertising the matter in conformity with law.

A resolution was adopted ordering
the transfer of $4000 from the general fund No. 2 by a unanimous vote.

The City Attorney submitted a petition intended for the court hereafter, asking for the transfer of the title to the sewer-farm estate of E.
Turner, deceased, to the city.

The City Attorney made an explanation touching this matter, to the effect that there was no trouble about the title to this property, from the fact that said title was vested in Mrs. Turner.

She was willing and ready to transfer the records, which she could do,
owing to the fact that she had been made sole trustee of decedent's will.

It was moved and supported that the matter of ventilating the Public Library be referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

A petition was filed asking for an ordinance to prevent persons from keeping two or more cows and to prevent stock from being staid out along the public streets. The City Attorney was of the opinion that ordinance No.
18 covered the case.

The Auditing and Finance Committee recommended that the petition of Margaret J. Kendall, asking for a rebate of $8.40 on taxes be granted and a warrant drawn for the amount. A similar recommendation was made in the case of William M. Day for $7.20 rebate. The same committee also recommended the payment of the salary of City Attorney Metcalfe for February, and it was so ordered.

ACACIA CHAPTER.
Last Saturday evening Acacia Chapter, No. 21, Eastern Star, gave the first of their series of receptions for 1890 in Masonic Temple. The following committee had charge of the affair: Helen A. Chaney, Nettie Getchell, Cora M. Getchell, Eliza Brooks, Frances J. Pease, Grace G. Pease, James J.

SCENE: Prospective Republican delegates breaking for tall timber.

A black and white illustration of a man in a 'Markham' hat driving a horse-drawn carriage. A group of men in hats are gathered around the front of the carriage, looking at the horses. The scene is outdoors with a fence in the background.

PROSPECTIVE REPUBLICAN DELEGATES: "Hi, there, mister! hold up a minute; want to talk with you about politics!"
 PLOWMAN: "Excuse me, gentlemen—can't stop now—must get through with my spring plowing first!"

Duss Avery, Luther Green, Stanley Houghton, Robert Frick and others. Dancing, games and music were indulged in until 10 o'clock, when a delicious lunch was served. The festivities were kept up until a late hour, when the company broke up. It was a social gathering associated with the most pleasing remembrance.

HANNA COLLEGE RECEPTION.

The fourth of the monthly receptions given by the pupils of the Los Angeles College under the direction of Prof. Adolph Willhartzitz, was a most enjoyable affair.

The lecture, a brief comprehensive account of the development of music from the earliest times to that of Martin Luther, was full of information, given in an attractive style.

Following is the programme:

PART I.

Piano solo, "Love in May." (Oesten)—Francis Best.

Violin solo, "Cradle Song." (Hauser)—Ernest Gaid.

Piano solo, a "Confidence;" b "Consolation." (Mendelssohn)—Gertrude Lawler.

Recitation, "Courtin." (Lowell)—Maud Keumick.

Piano solo, "Nocturno." (Field)—Lena Willey.

Trilo, "Laughing Song."—Daisy Randal.

Daisy Fiske, Yvonne Gaudin, and Hal Hour Lecture, "History of Music"—Prof. A. Willhartzitz.

PART II.

Organ and Piano, "Andante." (Wely)—Marg Crabbie and A. Willhartzitz.

Recitation, "Hearts Ease"—Daisy Handell.

Recitation, "A truly Lovely Philosophy!"—Bertha Foltz.

Piano, "Dance of the Gnomes." (Seeling)—Helene Dunn.

CHESTERFIELD SOCIAL.

On Friday evening the Chesterfield Club entertained its friends in the assembly-rooms of the Hollenbeck in a very pleasant manner. Dancing was the order of the evening, for which Arend's Orchestra furnished some fine selections. Refreshments were served in the Hollenbeck cafe. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Chalfant, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holmes of Kansas City, Misses Lena Forrester, Mamie Chanslor, Neita Stout, Fracker, Luta Jordan, Frankie Kutz, Bright, Nellie Henderson, Clara Carran, Laura Tufts, Edzie Rawlins, Dupuy, Eva Tufts, Whelpley, Messers, H. Busch, George Steckel, G. S. Hall, F. L. Forrester, E. B. Tufts, A. W. Allen, L. Nordlinger, W. Cosby, Dupuy, Long, Flashman, M. Hellman, F. M. Notman, D. R. Collins and J. W. A. Ott.

THE ILLINOIS SOCIAL.

A large audience attended the Illinois social Friday evening. After the reading of the minutes by Miss Whelpley, Prof. Gardner's orchestra discoursed some of the best music the Illinoisans have yet had. Miss Nettie Shaffner sang a solo that was highly appreciated. The Universal quartette gave the audience a number of songs. Mr. Bell gave them an admirable tuba solo, and was heartily recalled. Miss Etta Myers sang, and G. H. Hildebrach and Lillie Myers gave a guitar and zither solo that received a hearty encore. Mr. Dodge played upon the cornet most acceptably and was heartily recalled. After the regular entertainment of the evening the Maestro band was produced.

towing cast: "Nicodemus Nobbs," Helen Harrison; "Eugenie Rose-
mont," L. R. Kennedy; "Macintosh Smoke," Edward Schult; "Susie Hopkins," Sue Harrison; "Julia," Clara Kueck.

ROGERS BLOCK ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment given by Miss Helen Mar Bennett on Tuesday evening in the Rogers block for the benefit of the Union-avenue M. E. Church was a success artistically and financially.
The following programme was rendered:

Violin solo—Charles Valentine.
Recitation—Eliel Stewart.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Benson.
Mandolin solo—Miss Werner.
Recitation—Lillie Sargent.
Piano solo—Eliel Stewart.
Recitation—Helen Mar Bennett.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Benson.
Piano solo—Mrs. Valentine.

A JOLLY PARTY.

A jolly party, comprising the members of the class of '89 of the Los Angeles High School, assembled at the Woolfskill depot, Saturday afternoon
to bid farewell to their ex-principal Fred H. Clark, who left on the 1:4
train for San Francisco, after a week's stay in this city.

Perhaps the happiest part of the first reunion of teacher and class was the presentation of a miniature clas-
pin with the name of their "class
baby" inscribed thereon to Mr. Clark's son, Robert, whose birthday is identical with the '89's commencement day.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

About fifty couples were present at the social hop given by the Big Four
on Thursday evening, in Rogers Hall
corner of Union avenue and Temple street. The dancing lasted till a lat-hour, when every one voted it the most pleasant party of the season, and urged
the Big Four to continue giving them.
The music was furnished by Boshart Bros.

On next Wednesday evening, at the Tuverline Hall, a benefit concert will be tendered to Prof. F. J. Cooper
by Mr. and Mrs. Macleod returned yesterday from their wedding trip to the Hotel Arcadia, Santa Monica.

The Morris Vineyard Lodge, I. O.
G. T., No. 127, gave an entertainment and social in their hall, corner Grand avenue and Seventeenth street, on Wednesday evening. An exceptionally good programme was carried out.

Last Monday evening Miss Clara Carran gave a euchre party to her many friends at her beautiful home on Ellis avenue. After the prizes were awarded an excellent supper was served, which did justice to the fabulousness of the day, in a room of the cooking club. The supper over-dancing was participated in until a late hour.

The family of Mrs. M. A. Gibbo invite all her friends to an informal
reception to be held at her residence,
corner Ninth and Hope streets, on Saturday, March 24th, from 3 to 5
p. m., to celebrate her seventieth birthday.

Dr. J. H. Edmunds visited Redlands
last week.

Dr. Elizabeth Follansbee has returned to Los Angeles after a month's absence in New Mexico.

Mrs. R. H. West of Brooklyn, N. Y.
is a guest at the Bellevue Terrace.

Mrs. A. A. Webb, Miss Elsie M.
Spaulding and Miss Edward from

tura, were in attendance at the Teachers' Convocation.

The Tomato Club were the guests yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Capt. Bell at the Bellevue Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mitchell of Ventura visited friends in the city last week.

At Coronado.

Among the guests at Hotel del Coronado are Washington Porter of Chicago, I. A. Lathair and Alex. Lathair of New Mexico, C. C. Frew of England, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Lathrop of Chicago, Miss Retaile of London, Eng., J. W. Hannaford of St. Paul, W. V. Newlin of Denver, Richard Gray of San Francisco, C. S. Mellen of Omaha, James F. Fuller of New York, S. B. Hynes of Los Angeles, G. W. Cole of St. Louis, W. S. Alexander of St. Paul, J. H. Bennett of Salt Lake City, B. Campbell of Portland, Or., J. C. Stabbs of San Francisco, E. H. Hinton of Dallas, Texas, J. A. Tinsford of Topeka, George Olds of Montreal, C. A. Parker of Topeka, J. C. Shriver of New Orleans, J. S. Leeds of St. Louis, B. P. Langley of Helena, Mont., Dr. A. F. Elliott of Minneapolis, H. A. Newkirk of Pittsburgh.

The weather has been delightful for many days, and Coronado has never been so beautiful than at the present time. Eastern tourists are loud in their praise of the place; those who have left snow and ice behind them find here a climate which excels any other. The surf bathing is growing more delightful every day; the tides have been low of late, with very little swell; the result has been a great advantage taken advantage of the quietness for a dip in the surf. It has been a remarkably fine season for this sport; there has not been a time this winter when it could not be indulged in. A new naphtha launchboat, called Undine, has been added to the hotel fleet; this is an excellent boat for parties wishing to try the ocean swell. It will accommodate some twenty persons. Tourists have already enjoyed a trip on her. The past week has been famous for sailing parties. Dr. Danvers and a party of friends went to Point Loma Wednesday, having a very enjoyable day.

Arrangements are making to have a pack of hounds at the hotel this summer, and those who enjoy the pleasure will be from time to time invited to hunt hare and hounds over North Island, which will be partially cleared to give room for the sport.

The young ladies of the hotel are preparing an invitation german, to be given next Friday evening in the large ballroom of the theater. The committees are busy with arrangements, and the ballroom will present an appearance of surpassing loveliness.

The guests of the Hotel Coronado have enjoyed a course of lectures given by Prof. E. B. Warman during the past week. Each discourse was a galaxy of sparkling gems, wisdom, wit, humor, fine irony and ludicrous burlesque, and has been intensely interesting throughout. All who failed to hear Prof. Warman have missed a rare treat.

The fine, new race track is rapidly reaching completion. The stables will soon be finished, and will accommodate 150 horses. Several stables of fine horses in the East have already engaged quarters for next winter. The company has built a railroad to the track to carry passengers to the many points of interest in the country.

President Manvel of the Santa Fé road speaks as follows of the Hotel del Coronado: "It is doing San Diego more good than any other one thing, unless it be the climate. It brings rich or unfortunates, who go back and advise their friends to go to the place—men like Mark Twain, for example, who would not be a dream of country local enough to appreciate it if it were not for the hotel attractions and luxuries. My first visit was lengthened by the attractions of the place, and I presume I have sent one hundred representative people to San Diego on account of them. In fact, we have hauled the special cars of railroad magnates here, time and again, and instead of coming to give us an article of Coronado and the city, climate and country."

At Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA, March 22.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The marriage of Miss Rebecca Hodge and Harry E. Rogers took place Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hodge. A large number of guests had assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Mr. Warrington, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church in Santa Monica, a beautiful garden of roses, roses, smilax and marguerites and been made and presented by Mme. Voron. The bridesmaid and groomsmen were Miss Katie Hodge, sister of the bride, and Mr. Collette.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of white albatross cloth and faille silk with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a dress of white albatross with pink roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Emma Volkman and during the evening Miss Katie Hodge and Mme. Voron sang a duet "Cheerfulness," in a pleasing manner. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rogers every happiness in the future.

The company was made up of the following relatives and guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Boehme, Misses Katie, Eva, Hallie, Jennie and Laura Hodge, and Jacob and Wallace, sisters and brothers of the bride; Mr. Collette, Mr. and Mrs. Tierney, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Schlicher, Mr. and Mrs. A. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. T. Carpenter, Miss Agnes Collins and Kent Summerfield, W. Jackson, Mmes. S. Donald, George Boehme, Voron, Moken and herson, John Moken; Mrs. Anderson, Rev. Mr. Warrington, Miss Lee, C. Scott and Miss Emma Volkman. The presents were both numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers leave on Monday for their home in Buffalo, N. Y.

At Long Beach.

On Saturday afternoon, a week ago, Misses Fannie and Annie Dillon, two daughters of Hon. H. C. Dillon, pleasantly entertained a number of friends at their beautiful home, situated a few miles northeast of this city. The young ladies had, on this occasion, reached the mature age of 9 years, and the celebration was in honor of the event. The delightful afternoon affair, which served by engaging in various games, and later in the afternoon did full justice to the bountiful repast, of which all were invited to partake. As "everlasting shades drew nigh" the party dispersed, wishing their kind entertainments many happy recurrences of this most pleasant day. The following young people were present: Misses Fannie and Annie Dillon, Rosamond and Fannie Bixby, Joy and Ed Kingsbury, Grace and Ettie Price, Florence and Josephine Dillon, Hazel Webster, Hazel Lacey, and Master Harry and Willie Trux, Hugh Bixby, Eugene H. and Jotham Bixby, Jr. George Brown, James Dillon and Johnnie Nevins.

"If you love music, hear it go to concerts and pay fiddlers to play to you."

CHESTERFIELD.

The past week has been one of comparative quiet, musically, though preparation has filled it for the numerous events of the present one. The concert on Monday night was a pleasant one, and much excellent and diverting music was interspersed in the programme of the Teachers' Institute, that closed its session Friday night.

On Wednesday night, the 26th inst., a concert will be given at Bartlett's Hall by William Piutti and Miss Nora Large. A fine programme has been prepared.

"The Legend of the Bended Bow" organ accompaniment (Glierist)—The Ellis Club.

An informal musicale was given at Bellevue Terrace on Thursday night, where Miss L. Kimball, Mrs. Belle Smith Quincy, Mrs. West, Mrs. J. S. Owens and Messrs. Fowler and Brenner assisted in the entertainment of the guests.

A quartette consisting of Miss Lillie Breed and Mrs. Charles T. Parsons, sopranos, and Mrs. J. S. Owens and Mrs. Carrie Scott will assist at the Channing Club recitals, to be given on April 1st, 3d, 5th and 7th. Mrs. Mamie Perry Davis and Mrs. J. W. Hendricks will sing.

The S. M. Club will hold its regular meeting tomorrow night at the Ludlam school. The meeting will be devoted to the composers, Verdi and Rossini. The committee on programme are Miss Fanny Lockhart and Mr. Boardwell.

The official report of the Orphans Home board announces the total received from the Treble Clef concert to be $1873, net, thus making the result of the concert as satisfactory financially as the audience found it musically.

The Four Corners Club gave a Chopin afternoon on Friday at the house of Mrs. Stoneman, who was assisted in her duties as hostess by her daughters. Miss Stoneman organized the club and is its president, and Miss Adele Stoneman lends her very sweet voice to its success. Each carefully prepared number of the great musician was intelligently criticised by those present. Mrs. D. McFarland played a polonaise, and was followed by Miss Mary Mullins, who gave the stately, melancholy "Marche" on the violin. Mrs. Hugh Vall and Miss Vail played a polonaise and a duo, and Miss Vail followed with an interesting Etude. Miss O'Connell played a selection and Mrs. Vosburg played, brilliantly, the polonaise in C sharp minor. Miss Adele Stoneman sang a little song of Chopin's written in his sweetest and most elegant strain. Miss Merrill gave a difficult Etude. Mrs. Macneal played a polonaise on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Solano. The Misses Dorsey played the charming waltz in F. During the serving of the dainty refreshments, Mrs. Stoneman sang "Si te Savais." Thus ended a delightful afternoon.

A performance of the ever popular Pinafore is in preparation by the German Ladies' Benevolent Society, to be given April 7th.

The young ladies of Garvanza gave a grand concert at the hotel last evening, which was well attended. Miss Millie Tarble and other talent from the city assisted in the programme.

Every one should attend the concert at Turnverein Hall next Wednesday evening, for the complimentary benefit of Prof. Coleman, who had the misfortune of losing worldly goods by fire, and who has a large family.
